Classical Piano Recital held last Sunday was a triumph for the seven dedicated young pianists who each spend hours every day practising to attain the highest possible level of mastery of the keyboard. Performances varied from merely excellent to absolute brilliance! Public performance on a quality acoustic instrument is vital for those aiming at a career as a professional musician. It is the mission of the Music Ministry to encourage and to serve as a conduit between lessons and the concert platform. Thank you to Wilma Rivers who collected the donations ($300, which will nearly cover the piano tuning) and handed out programmes, and to the team of several strong men who helped move the furniture and the Yamaha. A word on the WORD

It is good to pause and ask ourselves how often our congregation has actually 'taken up the cross'. When we do this, we lace ourselves at risk-thankfully few of us are called to risk our lives, but we are called to place ourselves in situations of challenge. When Jesus walked towards Jerusalem, he was walking towards the most powerful forces of his day. He knew that and well have felt the same fear that we feel if we place ourselves on the line. As he truly assumed our humanness, Jesus knows all we experience-the alienation from others when we take a stand, the pain of rejection and even anxiety about the future. Is the church really seen as the institution which engages in that level of faithfulness?

"A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher, and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household! "So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops. Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your father. And even the hairs of your head are all counted. So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows. "Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven; but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven. "Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; and one's foes will be members of one's own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.
