Our Mission

To Participate in and Grow the Mission of God at Willetton by:

- Sharing the love of God and
- Telling people about Jesus
- Our Vision
God's Love and Hope in Action

Bible Reading: Luke 24:1-12

Death did not defeat Jesus. At the break of dawn, a new life was born. This movement from death to new life is also reflected in the 'bugle' call that is a part of ANZAC commemoration. In the military, the Last Post is the last bugle call of the day. It signifies the end of the day. The last note of the Last Post is a rising note; a symbol of hope for the next day. The Rouse is the first bugle call of the day. In worship, it heralds the resurrection. (Rev. Sue Page & Rev. Matthew Stuart, Worship Resources for the Centenary of the Landings of Gallipoli) It is this message of the new life in Christ that we are to share to those trapped in the power of death and hopelessness. It is the message of a new dawn after the darkest of night; of a new day after a long night. As a community of believers, we are called to be the embodiment of the resurrection to those who have been broken by violence; to offer healing to wounds created by all kinds of conflicts, here in our own backyard and beyond.
