Bible Reading: Psalm 15.

Psalm 15 was a part of the worship liturgy in the Jerusalem temple. In the opening part of the Psalm, people who entered the city of Jerusalem or the temple complex were asked: "Who may abide in God's tent? Who may dwell in the holy hill?" But the answer to the questions does not mention anything about the Jewish purity law. The Psalm answers the questions by declaring that those who can abide in God's presence are those who walk blamelessly and do what is right and speak the truth from their heart ..." (Psalm 15:2 NRSV) So, according to Psalm 15, the holy ones are not the ones who keep the purity laws—those who are concerned about the external features of their spiritual or religious life—but those whose 'walk' or whose 'disposition' in life is towards rightful living. Those are the ones who can 'dwell' or 'abide' in God's presence. I guess, we can also turn this around to say that God 'dwells' and 'abides' in and amongst those who live righteously and justly.

(Rev. Toby Keva)

Outreach Concert: The Variety Concert last Sunday 25 August was a resounding success. It was well attended by members of our congregation, loyal members of the general public and parents of the performers. The versatile principal of the eponymous Yoon Sen Lee Music School (from which most of our young musicians come) attended our 9.15 service followed by morning tea, conducted the children's Bridge Choir, accompanied one of the vocalists on the piano and then delivered the finale, the Malotte arrangement of "The Lord's Prayer". The sum of $347.80 was raised for the Music Ministry. Thank you to all who attended, including the stalwarts who moved furniture both before and afterwards, and encouraged the emerging musicians by their warm applause Lyn Muir 0418 923 404

Save The Date: for the Spring Variety Concert on Sunday 27 October 10.45am on. We will have a varied programme provided by young ladies from Presbyterian Ladies College, plus a local 12-year-old who has just passed his AMus piano exam. Details from Lyn Muir 0418 923 404 muireal@iinet.net.au
