Bible Reading: Ephesians 4:20–5:2

If we reduce the reading from the Ephesians to a list of dos and don'ts, we will end up with a list of very demanding expectations. But is it at all possible for anyone to meet these expectations? The answer is, "Yes!" We are indeed required to live up to the expectations in this passage. But "How?" The key is Ephesians 5:1 (NRSV): "Therefore be imitators of God...." We are called to imitate God; to transcend ourselves; to look beyond ourselves to the Divine. At the same time, we are to look to others just like Christ "loved us and gave himself up for us...." (Ephesians 5:2 NRSV) Indeed, when we look and go beyond ourselves to God and to others, then those expectations in the Ephesians will become our nature; our characters. No, it does not mean that we will never fall short of those expectations. But these expectations will become our 'north star' that will guide our life; the ideals that are worthy of our best effort to attain. (Rev. Toby Keva)

If you can assist with cooking, serving or being a general hand you will be very welcome to join the team for a 2–3-hour time slot. This sausage sizzle is in aid of YouthCARE and Global Mission. Please see Pauline or Bruce if you are able to volunteer.

FRIENDLY ROAD (Phyllis)

Visiting Mrs. Hope Argue at Sherwin Lodge SDA during the week was rewarding but sad also. Dear Hope, 100 years on 29th May has Alzheimer's Dementia. Hope looked well, lovely complexion, tidy hairstyle & neatly dressed. Still has that gentleness, grace and at times a lovely smile. On show in her room were the many cards and a large balloon stating 100. A dear soul.

Variety Concert on 25 August: Vocal Items include "Memory" (from "Cats"), "Panis Angelicus", "You Raise Me Up" and the Malotte arrangement of "The Lord's Prayer" Don't miss this wonderful, varied programme which has many instrumental works you will recognise. Our Service is at 9.15, Morning Tea at 10.15 and the concert starts promptly at 10.45am. Invite friends and family.
