Bible Reading Mark 12: 38-44

A large crowd gathered to listen when Jesus was preaching. As he taught them, he said watch out for the teachers of the law, who like to walk around in their long robes and be greeted with respect in the marketplace, Who chooses the best seats in the marketplace and choose the reserved seats in the synagogues & the best places at feasts. They take advantage of widows and rob them of their homes & take a show of saying long prayers As Jesus watches the treasury, he regards the offering of the rich people as unimportant, he holds up a positive example the poor woman's small offering Jesus called his disciples together and said to them, I tell you this poor widow put more in the offering box than all the others. For the others put in what they can spare of their riches, but the poor widow put in all that she had to live on.

One of the scribes came near and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, he asked him, "Which commandment is the first of all?" Jesus answered, "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." Then the scribe said to him, "You are right, Teacher; you have truly said that 'he is one, and besides him there is no other'; and 'to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength,' and 'to love one's neighbour as oneself,' —this is much more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices." When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." After that no one dared to ask him any question.
