Music: Due to deteriorating health Deirdre Russell has sadly advised she will no longer be providing music for us at Willetton. Deirdre has been a dedicated musician for the congregation for over 50 years. Playing each week for worship, leading the choir and being called on for many other occasions. It was planned to say a public thank you for Deirdre at morning tea one morning but due to health issues she has not been able to attend worship. Janice & Barbara visited her during the week and passed on the thanks of the congregation and gave her a card and pot plant. May God's Blessings be with you always.
A big thankyou Deirdre for all that you have done over the years.

Bible Reading: John 18:33-37

Jesus says to Pilate that his Kingdom is not from this world, but from the above. In other words, he is saying that the true nature of his kingdom is not of this world, but of heaven. And we know what the true 'nature' of our world is: 'red in tooth and claw,' 'survival of the fittest/the strongest/the most cunning.' But Jesus points us to heaven. He reminds us not to act like the leaders and rulers of this world, but to behave like the one who comes from heaven to be one of us. The true definition of a leader is not someone with power, but influence. Today, we learn how to have a great influence and an impact on people by following Jesus as our model; by showing our vulnerabilities; by identifying ourselves with those we lead—their fears, their hopes, their weaknesses—so that, like Jesus, we too can lead others to life

Then Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him, 'Are you the King of the Jews?' Jesus answered, 'Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?' Pilate replied, 'I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?' Jesus answered, 'My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here.' Pilate asked him, 'So you are a king?' Jesus answered, 'You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.'

Thankfully there are changes we can make!
