REFLECTION ON BIBLE READING

Luke 10:1-12

In our reading, Jesus controversially asks his disciples not to be self-sufficient. This sounds rather counter cultural, especially here in the West where we value personal independence and resourcefulness. But by practising a radical dependence on other people's generosity, the disciples learn that the flourishing of the Kingdom of God does not depend on their resourcefulness or ingenuity. As such, no one can claim that he or she is solely responsible for the growth of the Kingdom of God. Indeed, it takes a great deal of humility to accept someone's generosity. To be a recipient of someone's generosity, we have to first acknowledge our own vulnerability and need for help. Someone who is arrogant or proud cannot receive other people's help. That is why Jesus asks his disciples not to be self-sufficient and to rely on other's generosity. He wants them to learn that the Kingdom of God that he proclaims is deeply relational. It is never intended to be a private affair. From the very beginning, the Kingdom of God was, is, and will always be a communal affair. (Rev. Toby Keva)

Classical Piano Recital

Thank you to all the hardy folk and the rugged-up enthusiastic audience who attended on Sunday despite the cold wet weather; particularly those who helped move the piano and communion table both before and after the concert, which raised $228.10 for the Music Ministry. Lyn Muir 0418 923 404

50th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION Saturday, 16th August – 2.00 pm to 4.00 pm at the Worship Centre, Caprice Place, Willetton

A celebratory "High Tea" is being organised to acknowledge the anniversary of the Church moving from Rossmoyne to the Worship Centre in Caprice Place, Willetton. A trip down memory lane of the many events and activities which have been shared and organised over the past fifty years will form part of the programme.

We look forward to sharing this special anniversary with you, with past Ministers and others who helped with the planning in those early days.

We hope you can join us on the day.

There will be small charge of $5.00 and tickets can be obtained from Barbara Bennewith.

Other enquiries speak to Lois Murdock or Vivienne Rowney.

After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore, ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house!' And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near.' "Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me."
